

HEARTLAND SCULPTURE CHALLENGE

Art on The Bay

SUNDAY, MARCH 21, 9AM - 4PM
EVANS STREET ENTRANCE, BY THE AVIARY

Come on down and join in the festivities of sculpture and art, vote and find out who has won this years Heartland Sculpture Challenge.

VOTING

Heartland Sculptures will be published in The Timaru Herald on Sat, March 13, Tue 16, and High Country Herald on Wed, March 17 for you to vote. Or vote through www.classichits.co.nz

HEARTLAND SCULPTURE CHALLENGE

You could Win $100

Voting closes at 12noon and winner announced at 2pm. Vote for the statue you like. Entries available at the Timaru Herald Tent.

All those picking the winner will go into a draw for the $100. To be announced on the day.

GIANT MURAL PAINTING

From 10am to 2pm.

Polly Rowe School of Art students and Heart Kids will finish painting a giant 10 meter mural which a section will be donated to the new Caroline Bay Aquatic Centre. Squares cut from the mural are also available for sale.

CLASSIC HITS SAND SCULPTURE COMPETITION

Kids! Enter on the day and make a sand sculpture and you could win prizes. Register 9.30am - Judging 1pm.

Alzheimer's fund-raising ladies, vintage cars, music and food available at the Bay Farmers Market.

Supported by

